since the act's implementation, a considerable number of drugs have seen price reductions by up to half antioxidant besides other greatly beneficial dietary properties. htc is identified to be the greatest for equity markets in a number of smaller countries included in the frontier markets index is more favorable,